

The Juridification of Justice

29-30 April 2025, University of Cambridge

Convened by Tor Krever, University of Cambridge and Nora Jaber, University of Edinburgh

Venue: Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, 5 Cranmer Road, Cambridge CB3 9BL

---

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 29 APRIL

10.15 - 10.30      Welcome

Nora Jaber & Tor Krever

10.30 - 12.30      Session 1

Chair: Tor Krever

Sumi Madhok

tbd

Mireia Garces De Marcilla Muste

'Intersex human rights: a double-edged sword'

Nicola Palmer

'Juridifying the border'

Dimitri Van Den Meerssche

'The juridification of migrant justice: law as technology of externalisation'

12.30 - 13.30      Lunch

13.30 - 15.00      Session 2

Chair: Robert Knox

Lara Montesinos Coleman

'From the juridification of justice to the juridification of struggle'

Zoe Adams

'Louis Althusser and the juridification of "radical" politics: a labour law perspective'

Fernando Quintana

'The politics of petitionism: legal fetishism and the juridification of justice'

15.00 - 15.30      Coffee break

15.30 - 17.00      Session 3

Chair: Marina Veličković

Eva Nanopoulos

'Regulating economic coercion: a contradiction in terms? Economic coercion, capitalism and the limits of juridical justice'

Marius Pieterse

'Spatial justice and right-to-housing litigation in an unequal city'

Fionn Toland

'Engaging the legal form: the Apollo House occupation and the juridification of dissent'

---

WEDNESDAY 30 APRIL

9.00-10.30      Session 4

Chair: tbd

Michelle Burgis-Kastallho & Matilde Masetti Placci

'The Gaza genocide as a moment of linguistic entrepreneurship?'

Carl Emilio Lewis

'Nonsense in International Litigation'

Michael Becker

“Duelling inquiries” and the juridification of justice'

10.30 - 11.00      Coffee break

11.00 - 13.00      Session 5

Chair: Juliana Santos de Carvalho

Leila Ulrich

'Resisting international law through labour'

Marina Veličković

'Patriarchy as a juridical concept'

Robert Knox

'Expressing ecocide'

Anastasiya Kotova

tbd

13.00 - 14.00      Lunch

14.00 - 16.00      Session 6

Chair: Nora Jaber

Noura Erakat & Nicola Perugini

'Between resistance and genocide: Palestinian national liberation at the limits of international law'

Quỳnh N Phạm

'War, genocide, or violence yet unnamed?'

Tanzil Chowdhury

'Struggling through the courts: the juridification of Chagosian decolonization'

Francisco-José Quintana

'Ambition for rights: human rights, geopolitics, and the remaking of international law in Latin America'

Speakers

Zoe Adams (University of Cambridge)

Michael Becker (Trinity College Dublin)

Michelle Burgis-Kastallho (University of Edinburgh)

Tanzil Chowdhury (Queen Mary University of London)

Noura Erakat (Rutgers University)

Anastasiya Kotova (Lund University)

Carl Emilio Lewis (T.M.C. Asser Institute)

Robert Knox (University of Liverpool)

Sumi Madhok (LSE)

Matilde Masetti Placci (University of Edinburgh)

Lara Montesinos Coleman (University of Sussex)

Mireia Garces De Marcilla Muste (University of Exeter)

Eva Nanopoulos (Queen Mary University of London)

Nicola Palmer (University of Cape Town)

Nicola Perugini (University of Edinburgh)

Quỳnh N Phạm (Colby College)

Marius Pieterse (University of the Witwatersrand) Francisco-José Quintana (Geneva Graduate Institute and European University Institute)

Fernando Quintana (Queen Mary University of London)

Francisco-José Quintana (Geneva Graduate Institute and European University Institute)

Juliana Santos de Carvalho (University of Cambridge)

Fionn Toland (University of York)

Leila Ulrich (University of Oxford)

Dimitri Van Den Meerssche (Queen Mary University of London)

Marina Veličković (University of Warwick)

This event is supported by:

CRASSH, Girton College Cambridge and the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law