The Lauterpacht Centre for International Law is pleased to invite applications for the 2019 Brandon Research Fellowship (Brandon Fellowship), funded by a generous gift in 2009 by Mr Michael Brandon MA, LLB, LLM (Cantab.), MA (Yale) (1923–2012) and by Mr Christopher Brandon in 2013.

The Lauterpacht Centre provides a centre for research in Cambridge for legal practitioners and academics from around the world. The Brandon Fellow will be welcomed as part of the community of visiting scholars at the Centre. While in Cambridge, visiting scholars have the opportunity to meet with other researchers in their field and are encouraged to participate fully in the activities of the Centre, including the Friday lectures and the work-in-progress seminars of the visiting fellows/scholars. Visiting scholars have automatic access to the Centre’s Library and access by application to the University Library and the Faculty of Law’s Squire Law Library.

The Brandon Fellowship is intended to cover a stay of a minimum of one acceptance period (approximately 11–13 weeks) at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law and has a maximum value of £4,500; any additional travel or other expenses will be the responsibility of the selected Fellow. If a visit length of less than 11 weeks is agreed to, the award will be made pro rata.

The Brandon Fellow will undertake a project on some aspect of public or private international law or international arbitration while based at the Lauterpacht Centre. Candidates must specify a project in their application.

Candidates working in areas connected to LCIL fellows’ projects and activities are given particular consideration.

Fellows must produce a report of their work in English at the end of their Fellowship and deposit with the Lauterpacht Centre any publication resulting from the work undertaken during the Fellowship. The support received from the Brandon Research Fellowship at LCIL should be acknowledged in the publication.

Candidates must be fluent in English and at least one of French, German or Spanish.

Preference will be given to candidates who are nationals of members of the European Union; members of the Commonwealth; Argentina; Brazil; Chile; China; Japan; Panama; Serbia; Switzerland; and the United States of America.

Preference will be given to candidates who do not have the means to come to the Centre, and who have not yet been to the Centre.

Applications from regions or countries underrepresented among former LCIL visiting fellows are particularly welcome.

Guidance Notes for Applications for 2019-2020

Applications are invited for the Brandon Research Fellowship, tenable in the academic year 2019–20.

Deadline for Applications: Tuesday 28 March 2019

1. Eligibility
   (a) Candidates for the Brandon Fellowship must be fluent in English and at least one of French, German or Spanish.
   (b) Candidates must specify a project on some aspect of public or private international law or international arbitration on which they will work while resident at the Lauterpacht Centre.
   (c) The Fellowship is intended to cover a stay of at least once acceptance period of 11–13 weeks (term) at the Lauterpacht Centre.
   (d) This is a post-graduate research fellowship. Persons currently enrolled in PhD programs (in the UK or elsewhere) are not eligible to apply unless their final thesis has been submitted before the closing date for applications.

2. Preference
   Preference will be given to candidates who are nationals of any of the following:
   - Members of the European Union;
   - Members of the Commonwealth;
   - Argentina, Brazil, Chile, China, Japan, Panama, Serbia, Switzerland and the United States of America.

   Please ensure that you specify your nationality on the application form.

3. Research Project
   The Brandon Fellow must undertake a project on some aspect of public or private international law or international arbitration while resident at the Lauterpacht Centre. Candidates must specify a project in their application.

   Fellows must produce a report of their work in English at the end of their Fellowship and deposit with the Lauterpacht Centre any publication resulting from the work undertaken during the Fellowship.

4. Award
   The Fellowship will be to a maximum value of £4,500 (GBP); any additional travel or other expenses incurred will be the responsibility of the Fellow. Awards will be made pro rata if a visit of less than 11 weeks is agreed to. Payment of the award will be made after arrival in Cambridge. Please see the attached schedule of fees for an indication as to whether you will need to provide additional funds from your own source.
5. Applications

Applications for the Brandon Fellowship should consist of:

(a) Completed application form including outline of proposed research (available on the Lauterpacht Centre website: www.lcil.cam.ac.uk);

(b) Curriculum vitae (maximum four pages);

(c) Two letters of reference sent directly by the referee for the attention of the Administrator.

All documents should be prepared in English. The Applicant must ensure that his/her application is delivered either by post or email by the application deadline. The Applicant is also responsible for ensuring that the letters of reference are received by the application deadline.

Candidates submitting their application by post must send two copies of their application to:

Brandon Research Fellowship
The Administrator
Lauterpacht Centre for International Law
5 Cranmer Road
Cambridge CB3 9BL
United Kingdom

Applications submitted by email should be sent to the Administrator at the following address: admin@lcil.cam.ac.uk.

6. Facilities

The Lauterpacht Centre provides all Visiting Scholars, including the Brandon Fellow, with computer access, bench space, access to the Centre’s library and an introduction to the University Library and Squire Law Library. The costs of provision of these facilities are covered by a Centre fee. If additional (i.e. computer or secretarial) support is required, this may be subject to an additional charge.

7. Involvement in the Centre’s activities

The expectation is that the successful candidate will pursue their own research projects whilst in Cambridge. However, should the successful applicant’s research project be within an area connected to LCIL fellows’ projects and research activities, candidates may be invited to contribute to or collaborate in those projects.

Visitors to the Centre are encouraged to attend Friday lunchtime lectures in term, as well as any of the Centre’s open seminars that may interest them. By arrangement they may also attend lectures and talks on international law and related subjects elsewhere in the University. However, the Faculty of Law does reserve the right to levy charges for attendance at courses run by the Faculty.
The Centre is not a teaching institution, and does not award diplomas or certificates. Those interested in enrolling for Cambridge University degree or diploma courses in international law or international relations should contact the relevant Departments.

8. Terms and Conditions

The standard Terms and Conditions for Visiting Fellows and Visiting Scholars at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law will apply to the Brandon Research Fellowship; award of a Brandon Research Fellowship will be conditional on accepting these conditions by the Brandon Research Fellow and, if appropriate, their employer.
