

The International Court of Justice's Advisory Opinion in Chagos

11 and 12 April 2019, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge

Workshop organized by Thomas Burri, University of St. Gallen, and Jamie Trinidad, University of Cambridge

Program, v. 2.0 (1 April 2019)

Day One: Thursday, 11 April 2019
12.00-14.00	Light lunch
14.00-15.30	Public Keynote: Self-Determination and the General Assembly after the Chagos Advisory Opinion
	Stephen Allen, Queen Mary University of London followed by Q&A
15.30-16.00	Coffee
16.00-17.30	Public discussion: The Advisory Opinion and the Chagossians
	Input: Thomas Burri, Edward Fitzgerald, Sebastian Schnitzenbaumer, David Snoxell Chair: Jamie Trinidad
18.00	Drinks
19.30	Dinner (for invited guests only)

Day Two: Friday, 12 April 2019 Only for participants registered beforehand
10.00-12.00	Round table 1: The AO – What it means for the case of Chagos and international law Input: Mohor Fajidiga et al., Marcelo Kohen, Peter Sand, James Summers Chair: Daniel-Erasmus Khan
12.00-13.00	Light lunch
13.00-14.30	Round table 2: The AO – What it means for the Court Input: Zeno Crespi Reghizzi, Antonios Tzanakopolous, Julia Wagner Chair: Catriona Drew (tbc)
	Short break
14.30-16.00	Round table 3: The AO – Implications for other situations Input: Catherine Drummond, Johannes Fahner, Jamie Trinidad Chair: (tbd)
16.00-16.30	Coffee
16.30-17.00	Concluding discussion and way forward Chair: Thomas Burri