

Lauterpacht Linked

The Partnership Programme of the
Lauterpacht Centre for International Law

The Lauterpacht Linked Partnership Programme gives practitioners exclusive access to people, events and research associated with the Centre in exchange for their support.

With a community of Fellows and Visiting Academics from around the world, the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law is a leading centre of excellence in the field of international law.

Centre Fellows produce leading and cutting-edge research in many areas of international law. They are globally recognised, tuned in with current affairs, and connected with governments, practitioners and scholars from all over the world.

Membership of the programme is open to law firms, barristers' chambers, foreign ministries and major companies with an interest in international law.

LCIL Partners financially support the Centre thereby contributing to the development of its research activities and physical infrastructure.

Members of the Programme can expect to:

- receive invitations to Centre lectures and dinners
- enjoy exclusive networking opportunities
- build strong relations with LCIL Fellows working in their area of interest
- foster opportunities for collaboration in practice and in research
- meet promising graduate students
- nominate members of their organisation to become a practitioner in residence at the Centre for a term
- be recognised on the Centre's website www.lcil.cam.ac.uk.
