

Bohdan Winiarski Scholarships in International Law 2023

Guidance Notes for Applicants

The Lauterpacht Centre for International Law is pleased to announce the opening of a competition for a scholarship funded by the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The scholarship has been named after the Polish Judge and international lawyer, Bohdan Winiarski. Applications are open to PhD candidates, PhD holders and other academics who are nationals of the following countries:

Visegrad Group States and Western Balkans States (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia, as well as North Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Kosovo).

The Winiarski Scholarship has a value of £2,600 per scholar and is intended to offer additional support towards the costs of travel, visa, accommodation, health and personal accident insurance, maintenance, costs of stay, and the Centre Fee. Any expenses and costs incurred by the candidate in excess of the amount of the Scholarship shall be his or her responsibility.

The selected Winiarski scholar must use his or her scholarships in the 2023 calendar year.

The deadline for the applications is Monday 14 November 2022.

Detailed Guidance Notes and Terms and Conditions for Applicants

1. Eligibility

- (a) Candidates must be nationals of the following states:
Visegrad Group States and Western Balkans States (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia, as well as North Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Kosovo).
Candidates should specify their nationality on the application form.
- (b) Candidates must be fluent in English.
- (c) Candidates must specify a project on some aspect of public or private international law, on which they will work during their research visit at the Lauterpacht Centre.
- (d) Preference will be given to candidates who are associated on a permanent basis with a university or another well-established institution dealing with international law in the country of their nationality.
- (e) A good standard of English-language competence is required.

2. Applications

- (a) Applications for the Winiarski Scholarship should consist of:
  - a. A completed application form (available on the Lauterpacht Centre website), including an outline of the proposed research;
  - b. A detailed curriculum vitae;
  - c. Two letters of reference sent directly by the referees to the Lauterpacht Centre to the address provided below. If sent by e-mail, the reference should be sent from the institutional e-mail address of the referee and provide the referee's contact details.
- (b) All documents should be prepared in English.
- (c) All documents must be received by the application deadline. The applicant is responsible for ensuring that the application, including the letters of reference, are received by the deadline.
- (d) By submitting their applications for the Winiarski Scholarship, candidates agree that their data (in particular, name, affiliation and photograph) may be published by the Lauterpacht Centre, and their applications may be forwarded by the Lauterpacht Centre to the Polish Embassy in London.
- (e) Only successful candidates will be contacted by the Lauterpacht Centre.
- (f) Applications and references should be sent:
  - a. By e-mail to: winiarski.applications@lci.cam.ac.uk (please specify 'Winiarski Scholarship 2023' as the subject);
  - b. By post to: Dr Joanna Gomula, Winiarski Scholarship, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, 5-7 Cranmer Road, Cambridge CB3 9BL, United Kingdom.

3. Research Project

- (a) The Winiarski scholar must undertake a project on some aspect of public or private international law during his or her research visit at the Lauterpacht Centre. Candidates must provide an outline of the project in their application.

- (b) Upon the conclusion of the research visit, the Winiarski scholar must submit, both to the Lauterpacht Centre and to the Polish Embassy in London, a written report in English outlining the research and academic work done during the visit.
- (c) In case of subsequent publications resulting from the research visit, the Winiarski scholar shall specify that the research was done in the framework of the Winiarski Scholarship scheme and provide a copy of the publication to the Lauterpacht Centre and to the Polish Embassy in London. The support received from the Winiarski Scholarship should be acknowledged in the publication.

4. Award

- (a) Each Winiarski Scholarship has a value of £2,600 per scholar. It is intended to offer additional support towards the costs of travel, visa, accommodation, health and personal accident insurance, maintenance, costs of stay and the Centre Fee.
- (b) The method of payment of the Winiarski Scholarship shall be determined by the Lauterpacht Centre in line with local policies and regulations at the time of the visit. The Winiarski Scholarship will be paid to the Winiarski scholar after his or her arrival at the Lauterpacht Centre. Winiarski scholars should note that payment cannot be made in cash and that it may be difficult to open a bank account in the United Kingdom for the period of the visit. They should therefore consider making arrangements to have a sterling bank account before their arrival at the Lauterpacht Centre, to facilitate the transfer of the funds.
- (c) Expenses and costs incurred by the selected Winiarski scholar in excess of the amount of the Scholarship shall be the responsibility of the Winiarski scholar.
- (d) The Winiarski scholar shall be responsible for making all travel and accommodation arrangements, as well as any other arrangements relating to his or her visit at the Lauterpacht Centre, such as visa, health and personal accident insurance, and maintenance.
- (e) Candidates must use the awarded scholarships in 2023. The start and finish dates of the research visit, and any other details, are to be agreed directly between the Winiarski scholar and the Lauterpacht Centre. The Lauterpacht Centre cannot guarantee that it will be able to accommodate the candidate at a date preferred by him or her.
- (f) After the completion of the selection process, the information on the results of the competition and on the successful candidates will be made publicly available. In particular, such information may be published by the Lauterpacht Centre and the Polish Embassy in London on their respective websites.

5. Facilities

The Lauterpacht Centre provides all visiting scholars, including the Winiarski scholars, with computer access, bench space, access to the Centre's library and an introduction to the University Library and Squire Law Library. The costs of provision of these facilities are covered by a Centre Fee, which is to be paid by the candidate. If additional (i.e. computer or secretarial) support is required, this may be subject to an additional charge.

6. Involvement in the Lauterpacht Centre's activities

- (a) The Winiarski scholar is expected to pursue his or her own research project whilst at the Lauterpacht Centre. However, Winiarski scholars may be invited to contribute to or collaborate in projects carried out at the Lauterpacht Centre at the time of their visit.
- (b) Visitors to the Centre are encouraged to attend Friday lunchtime lectures in term, as well as any of the Centre's open events that may interest them. By arrangement they may also attend lectures and talks on international law and related subjects elsewhere in the University. However, the Faculty of Law does reserve the right to levy charges for attendance at courses run by the Faculty.
- (c) The Lauterpacht Centre is not a teaching institution and does not award diplomas or certificates.

7. Other Terms and Conditions

- (a) The standard Terms and Conditions applicable to visiting academics and university students will apply to Winiarski scholars. The award of the Winiarski Scholarship will be conditional on accepting these conditions by the candidate and, if appropriate, agreed to by their employer.
- (b) The Winiarski scholar shall be subject to all laws, rules and requirements applicable to visiting scholars at the Lauterpacht Centre.
